

Redwings Horse Sanctuary - Horse Rescue Resources

We hope the rescue contacts below can be of help as you try to find a home for your horse. Please note that Redwings staff have not visited and cannot verify the standard of care at the rescues listed. We highly recommend visiting any rescue or sanctuary to ensure it is a safe place before relinquishing ownership of your horse.

We have noted GFAS accredited and verified sanctuaries. The Global Federation of Animal Sanctuaries (GFAS) identifies sanctuaries and rescue facilities that provide animals with the highest standards of care by conducting a thorough evaluation of facilities. Accredited facilities must meet additional rigorous inspection requirements.*
